

SUPPLEMENTARY MATERIAL

Appendix I

1. During the first wave SARS-CoV2 pandemic, what year of resident were you in?
 1st year (R1) 2nd year (R2) 3rd year (R3) 4th year (R4)
2. Autonomous community
3. Have you been working at first line during SARS-CoV-2 pandemic? (multiple answer)
 Yes, ER work shifts.
 Yes, on-call in the ER.
 Yes, on COVID-19 inpatient work shifts.
 Yes, on-call in the COVID-19 inpatient area.
 No.
4. If you were on call, how many did you do per month?
5. What wave/s have you worked on the front line? (multiple answer)
 1st wave 2nd wave 3rd wave
6. Was your care activity in the allergy unit suspended during the pandemic?
 Yes No
7. Were training rotations suspended or changed due to the pandemic?
 Sí, suspended.
 Sí, posponed.
 No.
8. Which rotations were suspended or changed?
9. Have you been able to make the lost rotation/s up?
 Yes No

10. During the pandemic, has the length of the residence been shortened?

Yes No

11. If yes, how much time was shortened?

12. How do you think the pandemic has affected your training as an allergist?

Less training

Less research opportunities

Reduced job opportunities

Not affected

More training

Increased research opportunities

Increased job opportunities

13. Did you find a job at the end of your residency?

Yes, as ER physician

Yes, as allergist

Yes, as physician in COVID-19 area

Not finished yet

14. Would you propose any strategy to make the lost formation up?