

SUPPLEMENTARY MATERIAL

Figure E1. Flow cytometric basophil activation test in a patient with polyethylene glycol allergy. Histograms show the percentage of activated basophils without stimulation (negative control), with anti-IgE stimulation (positive control) and allergens tested.

