SUPPLEMENTARY MATERIAL

BOX 1. Stop criteria for individual patients
Participants may withdraw or be withdrawn from the study for any of the following reasons:
• A participant does not significantly meet the requirements of the protocol (e.g., a patient taking prohibited concomitant medications for an ongoing period that, in the investigator's judgment, could interfere with the interpretation of study data).
• A participant experiences an adverse reaction that, in the investigator's judgement, their participation in the study carries an unacceptable risk.
• A participant withdraws of his/her own free will (withdrawal of consent).
• A participant commits major protocol deviations.
• A patient is withdrawn at the specific request of the sponsor.

La Participants in whom the intervention has been initiated, i.e. who are at any step of the 'milk ladder', will not be replaced.

Parents may alternate muffins with the commercial milk bread listed below.

Commercial alternative: Milk bread buns La Bella Easo®. An OFC will be carried out with half bun of milk bread a day. After 15 days, the child will be scheduled for a new challenge with one loaf of bread milk and will continue this way for three months.
